BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION OF
SOUTH CAROLINA
DOCKET NO. 94-766-E - ORDER NO. 95-615✓
MARCH 15, 1995

IN RE: Request of Carolina Power & Light Company) ORDER for Approval of Incremental Power Service) APPROVING (Experimental) Rider IPS-2.) RIDER

This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina ("the Commission") on the request of Carolina Power & Light ("CP&L") for approval of Incremental Power Service Rider IPS-2. Rider IPS-2 offers large customers lower rates for incremental usage above their normal consumption during periods when CP&L has relatively low system generating costs. Rider IPS-2 will establish monthly "base demands" for each customer as a measure of that customer's normal electricity demand for each month. During incremental power periods, customer demand above the "base demand" will be considered incremental demand consumption that will be priced at the lower rate. Rider IPS-2 will be available to a maximum of 25 customers and will terminate on December 31, 1996, at which time CP&L will evaluate customer reaction to the program and determine whether its availability should be continued.

The Commission's Executive Director instructed CP&L to publish a prepared Notice of Filing in newspapers of general circulation in the areas affected by the request. The purpose of the Notice of Filing was to inform interested parties of the request and of the manner and time in which to file the appropriate pleadings for participation in any proceedings. CP&L complied with this instruction and filed affidavits of publication as proof of its compliance. No comments, protests, or Petitions to Intervene were received by the Commission.

Upon review of the Rider IPS-2, the Commission finds and concludes that Rider IPS-2 should be and is hereby approved. The effective date of Rider IPS-2 shall be the date of this Order. The Commission reserves its determination of the appropriate ratemaking treatment resulting from Rider IPS-2 for a future rate proceeding or for such other time as the Commission deems appropriate.

This Order shall remain in full force and effect until further Order of the Commission.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
